PREFACE

THE FOLLOWING INTRODUCTION to Ramtha and his School has been provided by RSE so you may have some context about the environment in which I received some of the knowledge and experiences I write about in this volume.

Foundations of the Teachings

The four cornerstones of Ramtha's philosophy are

- the statement, "You are God"
- the mandate to make known the unknown
- the concept that consciousness and energy creates the nature of reality
- the challenge to conquer yourself
- Students are initiated into the philosophy through special disciplines designed by Ramtha that turn the philosophy into personal experience. This allows the students to begin to experience their own personal truth, their own personal wisdom, and no longer rely on belief, faith or someone else's word. Ramtha's School of Enlightenment (RSE) has been a powerful bridge between science and mysticism in its greatest output, the students themselves, and in the personal difference it has made in individual lives.

Ramtha

Ramtha is the master teacher at the school. He lived as a human being on Earth 35,000 years ago. He explains that in his lifetime, he addressed the questions about human existence and the meaning of life, and that through his own observation, reflection, and contemplation he became enlightened and conquered the physical world and death. His philosophy reflects the experience of his own life. His teachings emphasize that each individual is responsible for their own reality, that your attitudes affect your life, and that you can change your life by changing the way you think. The form in which Ramtha communicates his teachings is through the phenomenon called channeling. He uses the body of JZ Knight to channel himself and teach his philosophy in person.

JZ Knight

JZ Knight is the unique channel of Ramtha and author of the best-selling autobiography, "A State of Mind, My Story." Historians and religious experts who have studied her life's work call JZ Knight the Great American Channel and recognize her as one of the most charismatic and compelling spiritual leaders of the modern age. JZ Knight is the only channel through whom Ramtha has chosen to deliver his message. She and Ramtha have inspired audiences worldwide for the last three decades, bridging ancient wisdom and the power of consciousness together with the latest discoveries in science.
